Assessment and Statement

Sproud International AB is a growth company focusing on creating and selling plant-based dairy alternatives. Sproud partners with contract manufacturers to deliver innovative and sustainable food products. Sproud reaches about 30 markets worldwide with its main markets in Sweden and the United Kingdom. Headquarters are located in Malmö. The startup is doing its second verification. The scope of the verification covers Sproud International AB and its operations in Sweden, and United Kingdom.

Sproud International AB has carefully answered the questions in the self-declaration and provided documents that support these answers. Sproud International AB has described its value chain, performed a stakeholder analysis and a materiality analysis based on the ISO 26000 standard, and based on selected goals and sub-goals from the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The goals have been compiled in an "action plan of priority goals".

Sproud was born from a sustainability purpose. Their mission is to make the tastiest, healthiest, most sustainable plant based dairy products on the planet. Hence, Sproud aims to maximize its contribution to sustainable development and believe that all three pillars of sustainability (people, profit, planet) need to be emphasized.

During 2023 and 2024 Sproud continued the work of implementing its sustainability processes into the business. Some financial highlights of the year show that the company experienced top line growth in a declining market, reduced costs and improved the margins as well as EBITA. This means that the company has strengthened its economic sustainability and demonstrated very good leadership within the area. A high degree of transparency prevails and good business ethical behavior can be discerned throughout the business. Sproud International AB shows respect and sensitivity to the interests of stakeholders.

Verify Agency has performed the verification through interviews with the organization's staff and through a sampling of the documentation that the organization refers to in the self-declaration and in the management of its sustainability work. Sproud International is deemed to meet the requirements of SIS/TS2:2021. Sproud International considers and continues to work with the principles of social responsibility both internally with employees and externally with customers, suppliers, and other prioritized stakeholders. In this work, the company is based on the seven principles in ISO26000 as well as the Sustainable Development Goals framework, where management and division of responsibilities for these areas are being worked out in the business.
